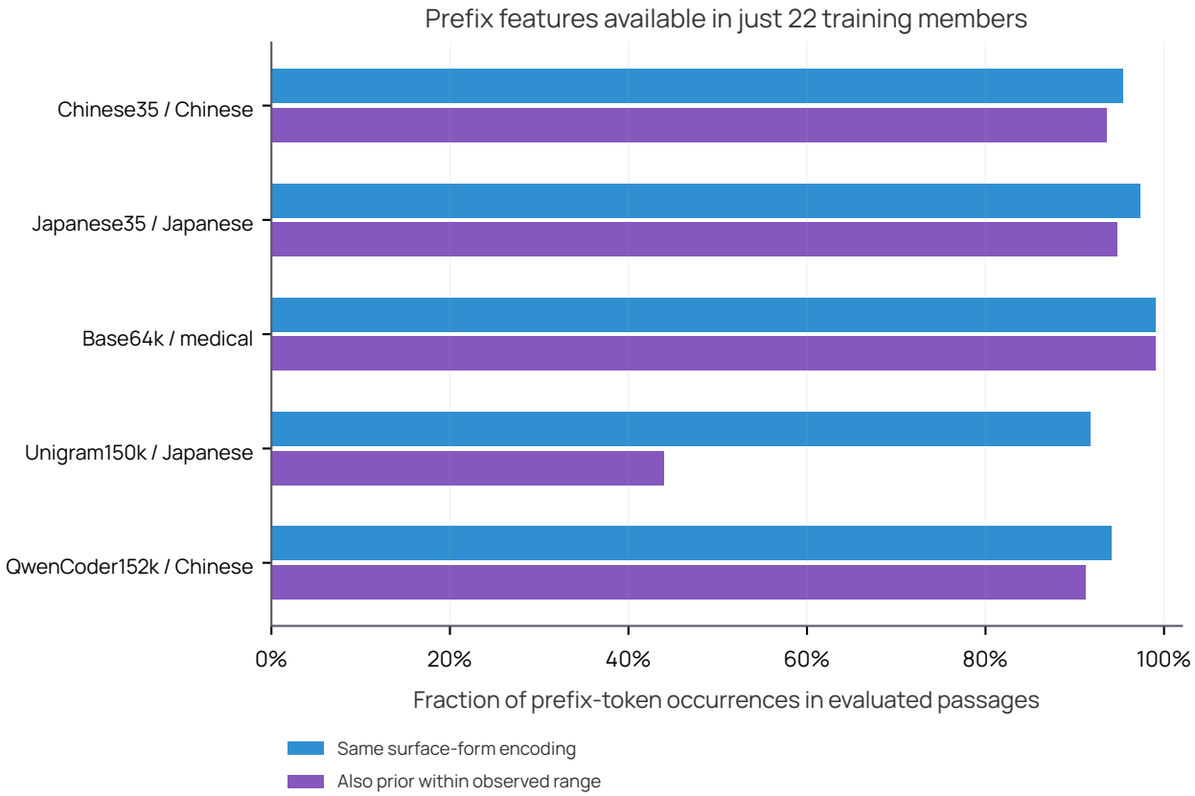
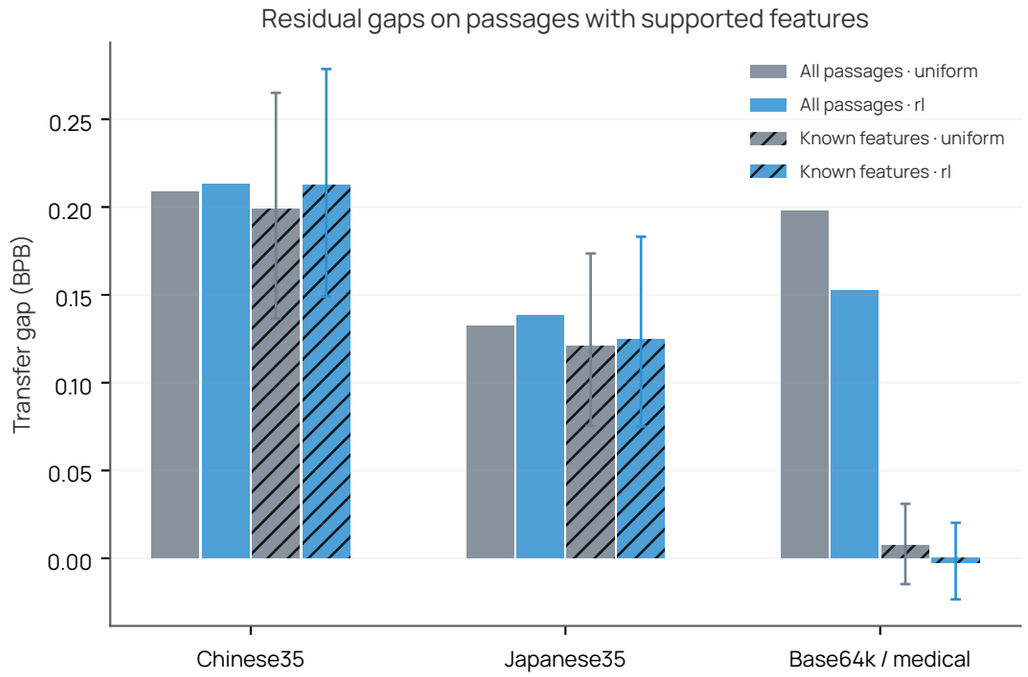
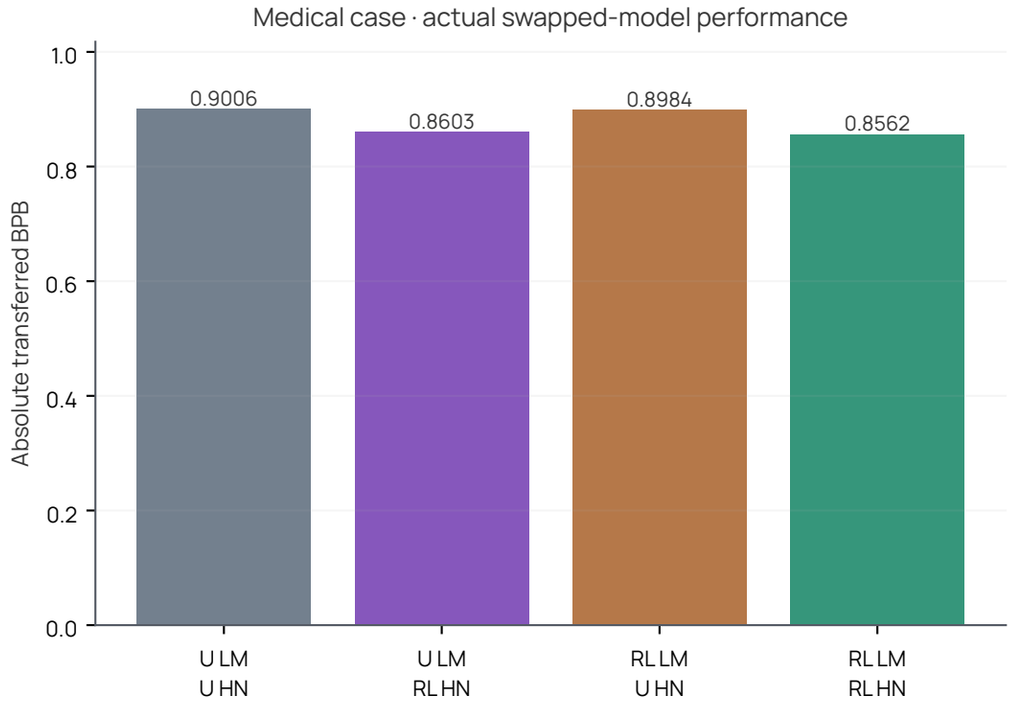
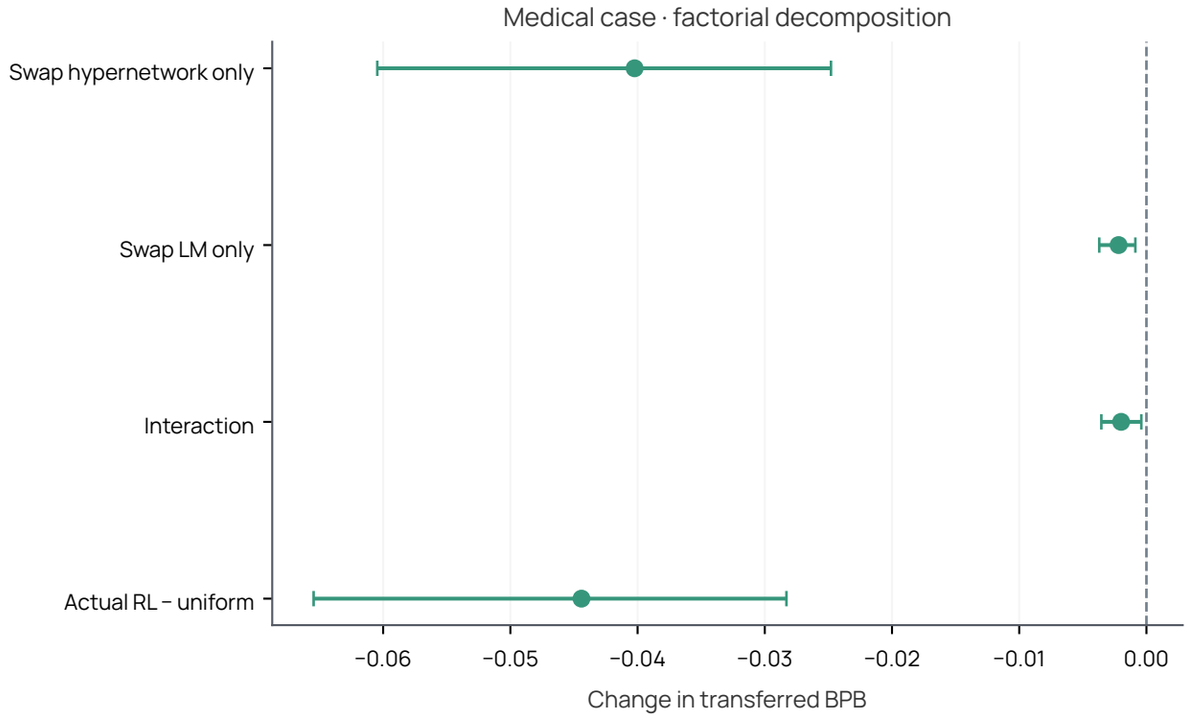
Lexical availability and component-swap checks

Frozen original panels · same 20k models · no additional training









Availability is a lower bound from 22 training vocabularies, not proof of gradient or joint-context exposure.
Hybrid models are interventions on co-adapted components; their interaction prevents a simple additive attribution. Intervals use paired source articles.